

Work-Life@NIH:

A Supervisor's Guide to Enhancing Workforce Well-being

During this free workshop, you will:

- Discuss the components of workforce well-being and how it can benefit your organization;
- Learn about policies and programs the NIH offers to promote workforce well-being; and
- Strategize regarding how to manage requests for these policies and programs as a supervisor.

This workshop is taught by NIH Subject Matter Experts and has been approved for 2 Continuous Learning Points for supervisory refresher purposes.
