

TRAINING INSIGHTS: SPOTLIGHT

DDM Seminar Series Nominations begins:	Federal HR for Administrative Professionals:	The DDM Seminar Series:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• July 1, 2024 - July 31, 2024 Join us to help select our next group of speakers for the always interesting and intriguing DDM Seminar Series for fiscal year 2025. Check the link below at the start of July for our month-long nomination period. We look forward to all the thoughtful submissions.○ The DDM Series Nominations Page	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• July 9, 2024 — July 10, 2024 Location: Virtual○ Federal HR for Administrative Professionals is a two-day class designed to assist non-HR administrators with the particulars of human resources management. The NIH Training Center is offering this class in July and it is currently open for registration.○ Register Here	July 11, 2024 — John Amaechi “Building Effective Teams” John Amaechi is a respected organizational psychologist, an OBE (Order of the British Empire), Chartered Scientist, elected Fellow of the Royal Society for Public Health, bestselling New York Times author, Research Fellow at the University of East London, and Founder of APS Intelligence. Mr. Amaechi brings his expertise and experiences to help instruct the NIH community on maintaining a thriving organization.